Grace and peace to you, and welcome!

As you prepare for worship, please sign the red welcome pad, and pass it to your neighbor. At the end of the row, have the last person please pass it back to the center aisle so we can know our fellow worshipers.

Then, prayerfully allow the silent, sacred space of where you are, and the quiet stirrings of the Holy Spirit to prepare your heart and mind for worship.

Call to Confession

Steve Van de Graaf

Leader: Sin shuts us down and stops us short of hearing God's Word. Let us open ourselves to hearing God's truth and free ourselves to follow God's path by confessing our sin and embracing God's mercy.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of Hope and Promise, we confess we do not always believe. We confess our questions and complaints catch up to us. We cannot understand our suffering and the suffering of others. We are perplexed and perturbed by the injustice of the world and life. Forgive us when we give up on you and ourselves. Return and restore us to right relationship. Help us not to disengage but remain steadfast in faithful pursuit of your love and grace.

(silence for personal reflection and repentance)

Leader: In Jesus' name we pray.

People: Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Leader: God's grace is given freely. God's love is steadfast. Receive the good news that by faith in Jesus Christ, you are forgiven, and live liberated from sin to live to the glory of God.

People: By faith, we are forgiven and set free for new life. Thanks be to God!

*Gloria Patri (No. 581)

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end, Amen, Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Leader: This is Jesus' promise, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Congregation greets one another and share the peace of Christ

THE WORD

Prayer For Illumination (unison)

Jeannie Hart

Your Word guides every step of our journey, God. Help us be attentive to your Word read and proclaimed today, so we can hear your message and act according to your will. Amen.

First Lesson – Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

¹Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ²Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. ³By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. ¹²Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.” ¹³All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, ¹⁴for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson – Luke 12:32-40

The Rev. Scott Herr

³²“Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. ³³Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. ³⁵“Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; ³⁶be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. ³⁷Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. ³⁸If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. ³⁹“But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁰You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

Minister: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

Call for the Offering (From 2 Corinthians 9:7)

Steve Van de Graaf

We are people who desire a better country, literally. We strive for a community with liberty and justice for all. So as we pray, “thy Kingdon come, they will be done on earth as it is in heaven,” let us invest to make that vision a reality. Let us present our tithes, gifts and offerings to God.

Walkin’ Down That Glory Road

Mark Hayes

Walkin' down that glory road,
I got no more troubles on my mind.
I've been many miles and I've seen joys and trials,
but I have left my troubles far behind.

Now the rich get richer
and the poor stay poor.
It seems to me
It's always been that way.
But I don't worry
About what I haven't got,
'Cause riches may never come my way.

I used to carry
A heavy, heavy load.
Worry and heartache
Brought me down.

But I laid my burden
Down by the road of life,
And I said good-bye to my sorrow
And then I turned around.

Now I don't worry,
I just don't worry,
If the sun is gonna shine.
The rain falls on the sinner,
And the dear old saint.

But I just keep walkin'
Along that glory road,
Won't take no time for fussin'
Or for worn out complaints.
Walkin' down that glory road of life.

Evan McCormack - tenor

Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

Old Hundredth

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

God of abundance, everything we have is but a gift from you. Help us be good stewards of all your precious resources. Bless these gifts we give in return that they might, in turn, be a blessing to others; for Christ's sake. Amen.

Invitation to The Lord's Table

The Rev. Mary Marple Thies

Eucharistic Prayer

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise...

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Breaking the Bread and Sharing the Cup

The words of institution are spoken here.

Prayer After Communion (unison)

The Rev. Scott Herr

Living God, thank you for welcoming us again at this table, and for giving us faith to be sure of what we hope for, and certain of what we do not see; to believe that you are present to us even now, and draw near whenever we truly seek you. Strengthen us with this spiritual food, that we may live more by faith, and receive what you have promised to seek a better life and fairer world for all; in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TODAY IN WORSHIP

Welcome to worship on this 19th Sunday in Ordinary time! We are glad you are joining us and pray you will experience the grace of God's welcome and be spiritually refreshed and socially reoriented. Summer is a good time to consider what gives life or takes life away. Today we explore what it means to live "by faith." Scott will be reflecting on what it means to journey with God, AKA living "by faith" through the lens of our two lectionary texts for the day: Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16 and Luke 12:32-40.

All children are welcome to stay in worship throughout the service but may leave after Scott offers a message for young disciples after the welcome and announcements.

First Presbyterian is pleased to offer babysitting during our Sunday worship service provided by Louna Esperance and Saturnina Greeves-Cooper from Wee Care Nanny Agency. Our worship service nursery is located just off our Common Room vestibule down the long hall from the sanctuary and is available between the hours of 8:45–11:30am. Parental and guardian sign-in is required and we do ask that you pick up your child promptly after the service. Thank you.

There are also curriculum bags for kids and a craft corner in the rear of the sanctuary if anyone gets restless. Church-wide events hosted by the YLC are inclusive of all ages! Continue to watch the FPCNC event schedule and sign up to explore faith and share in fellowship with our wonderful inter-generational church family.

FPCNC is staying steady with "mask optional" policy in worship, at church gatherings, and on church grounds. Fully vaccinated individuals are no longer required to wear masks, although those who prefer to may continue to do so. The in-person Sunday service will continue to be simultaneously streamed online via LocalLive at 10:00 am.

Large Print Hymns available: Have difficulty reading the hymnal? Each Sunday a copy of the hymns in large font will be available – just ask an usher for the "Blue Hymn Folder". After worship, please leave the hymn folder with an usher or on the table in the back of the Sanctuary.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

René Ambroise Jean Eugène Vierne (1878-1918) was a French organist and composer. He was born in Lille, the younger brother of Louis Vierne. Pushed by his mother, he entered the Catholic Seminary at Versailles in 1889 where he studied music with the Canon Poivet. Not feeling a vocation to the priesthood, he left and instead devoted himself to music, taking lessons in organ, counterpoint and fugue with his brother Louis. Then he studied with Alexandre Guilmant at the Paris Conservatoire and was awarded a first prize for organ and improvisation in 1906. In 1897, he obtained a post as organist at the Chapel of the Convent of the Dominicans, the Annunciation, rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré in Paris. In 1904, he succeeded Camille Andres (1864–1904) as titular organist at Notre-Dame-des-Champs. At the outbreak of World War I, he was mobilized and moved to the front on 8 August, 1914. On 29 May, 1918, at 8 am, on the Plateau Branscourt (Marne), he was killed by Austrian shrapnel. His loss severely affected his brother, who also lost his son Jacques in the war.

Mark Hayes was raised in a creative musical environment, beginning piano lessons at age ten and developing his improvisational skills at an early age. He earned a B.M. in piano performance, from Baylor University. During his college years his dream of becoming a composer and arranger was born and nurtured. Mark is now a writer, conductor, and concert pianist, making international tours. Mark's music is found in the music libraries of churches and universities around the world. His compositions and arrangements are known for their unique American sound, drawing from such diverse musical styles as gospel, jazz, pop, folk and classical. Mr. Hayes' personal catalog, totaling over 1,500 published works, includes work for solo voice, solo piano, multiple pianos, orchestra, jazz combo, small instrumental ensembles, and choruses of all kinds. Whether concertizing on the other side of the globe or composing at his home in Kansas City, Missouri, Mark is blessed to live out his mission "to create beautiful music for the world."

PRAYERS AND CONCERNS

Please keep the following people in your hearts.

New prayers and concerns: Don O'Brien Continued concerns: Tim and Kate Albert (friends of the Holden family); Tom and Judy Duncan (Lisa Flanagan's parents); John Edwards; John Lanaway; The Lewis Family (friends of Lisa and Terry Flanagan); Denise Lynch; Sandy Nissley; Marlene Powers; Wendy Starr; The Abo Noktah family (our Syrian refugees): father Khaldoun, mother Khawla Alzob, daughters Hanin, Zain and Hayat, and sons Yaman and Ahmed, and Khaldoun's mother, Nam Abo Noktah.

We continue to pray for the families and friends of the victims who have been affected by all the mass shootings. We also continue to pray for the people of Ukraine and Russia.

Finally, please pray for the APNC team on behalf of their focused and dedicated Associate Pastor search.

Emergency response to Ukraine war

As the violence in Ukraine continues, the number of people being displaced internally and fleeing to neighboring countries increases by the day. And in the midst of the chaos, there are sibling churches and ecumenical partners who are already providing assistance with basic items for survival. Our first priority is to provide funding to these partners on the ground. While the scale of this crisis is new, receiving refugees from Ukraine and other countries in Central and Eastern Europe is not, which means we have trusted, established partners with the knowledge and expertise to carry out this important work. Our response will include both financial and technical assistance as the network of faith communities providing humanitarian assistance grows in the months ahead.

GIVE: To support emergency relief for those fleeing Ukraine, designate gifts to DR000156. You can also text PDAUKR to 41444 to donate. Gifts can be made online at pcusa.org/UK22, by phone at (800) 872-3283, or by check using the below reply device.

ACT: Urge the U.S. government to support generous aid for refugees and civilians suffering in Ukraine, and call for engaging a diplomatic solution to the conflict.

PRAY: May we undergird our prayers with tangible resources to help.

May we reach deeply, give generously, and welcome extravagantly.

May we lift our voices in a strong and unified advocacy.

May we all, even as we breathe in lament, breathe out mercy, hope and peace.

And in this Lenten season, when we walk the way toward death and resurrection, repent our complicity in cultures of violence and renew our efforts toward justice and peace.
