Where Faith, Families & Friends Connect

Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time • July 7, 2024 • 10:00am
178 OENOKE RIDGE, NEW CANAAN, CT 06840 • 203-966-0002 • FPCNC.ORG

Grace and peace to you, and welcome!

As you prepare for Worship, please sign the red welcome pad found at the center of each aisle so that we will know you worshipped with us. Then pass it to your neighbor. The last person to sign the pad should pass it back to the center of the aisle. We suggest you prayerfully allow the silent, sacred space of where you are, and the quiet stirrings of the Holy Spirit to prepare your heart and mind for Worship.

PLEASE STAND IN BODY AND/OR SPIRIT.*

Call to Confession

Angela Johnson

Leader: When we gather to worship God, we must first be honest with ourselves. We must be vulnerable, even if it looks like weakness. We must admit that we are not who God has called us to be as a people. We have not cared for others in every instance. We have made mistakes. Let us unburden ourselves and confess our sins, knowing that God awaits to forgive, restore and renew us... Let us pray:

Confession of Sin (unison)

Angela Johnson

Gracious God, we live in the tension of what we are called to be and our lived reality. We often fall short of the good we intend, and our growing in the likeness of Christ is painfully slow at best. Forgive us we pray. Help us to trust in the sufficiency of your grace. Offer us the peace that passes all understanding that we might be forgiven and begin anew...

(silence for further individual reflection and repentance...)

Leader: In Jesus' name we pray.

People: Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Angela Johnson

Leader: Hear the Good News! In Jesus Christ, the old life is gone, a new life has begun. You are not who you were, may you live into who you can be. Hear and believe the good news:

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and made righteous. Amen!

*Gloria Patri (No. 581)

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Angela Johnson

Leader: The first words of the risen Christ to his followers were, "Peace be with you." May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Please share that peace with one another.

Congregation greets one another and shares the peace of Christ

THE WORD

Lighting the Candle for God's Global Vision of Compassion, Justice and Peace

Stacy Arevalo

Leader: Today we light a candle for God's Global Vision of Compassion, Justice and Peace....

People – Sung response Hymn No. 757, verse 3: Today We All are Called to Be Disciples

Kingsfold

Pray justice may come rolling down as in a mighty stream, with righteousness in field and town to cleanse us and redeem.
For God is longing to restore an earth where conflicts cease,
a world that was created for a harmony of peace.

First Lesson – II Corinthians 12:2-10

Angela Johnson

²I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. ³And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows— ⁴was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. ⁵On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. ⁶But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, ⁷even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. ⁸Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, ⁹but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. ¹⁰Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson – Mark 6:1-13

The Rev. Scott Herr

¹He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. ²On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! ³Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. ⁴Then Jesus said to them, “Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house.” ⁵And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. ⁶And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. ⁷He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. ⁸He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; ⁹but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. ¹⁰He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. ¹¹If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.” ¹²So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. ¹³They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Minister: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: All that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. With gratitude, let us give back a portion of that goodness to invest in God's work in the world.

Offertory Solo:

Mansions in the Skies (from Three Mountain Hymns)

Alice Parker

When I can read my title clear to mansion in the skies,
I'll bid farewell to every fear and wipe my weeping eyes.
Should earth against my soul engage and hellish darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage And face a frowning world.
Let cares like a wild deluge come, And storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home, My God, my heav'n, my all.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Prayer After Communion (unison)

Stephanie Hare

Almighty God, You have welcomed us to receive a reminder of the scandalous grace of Your love at Your table. Help us to be truly thankful, and to live in the power of Your weakness; to let go of the love of power and embrace the power of Your self-giving love. Send us filled with Your Spirit, equipped to share Your grace and love with those around us, so that with all the saints, we may live to Your glory; in Christ, with Christ, through Christ, and for Christ we pray. Amen.

NOTICE TO THE CONGREGATION

The Session approved a six-month contract with Stacy Arevalo to serve as the part-time (20 hours per week) Director of Pastoral Care, Adult Discipleship and Spiritual Formation. Stacy, who retired from GE Corporate Finance group in April, has recently completed her Master of Divinity degree from Fuller Theological Seminary. Under care of Noroton Presbyterian Church Session, she is in the process of completing her ordination exams and is now exploring the possibility for ordination of Word and Sacrament as a Teaching Elder (also known as a Minister of the Word and Sacrament) in the PC(USA). She has graciously served as an intern with us for the past academic year and looks forward to this time of service and discernment of her call while continuing to exercise her gifts for ministry with us. The contract period begins July 1 and ends December 31st. Stacy will be working with The Rev. Mary Thies with the Pastoral Care Team, taking the lead on the Alpha Course (details coming soon), nurturing the prayer ministry of our church, assisting in Worship on a regular basis, and sharing in home and hospital visitation. The Session welcomes your feedback and any questions or comments you may have. Please welcome Stacy and pray for her as she continues down the path toward ordination.

TODAY IN WORSHIP

Welcome to Worship on this 14th Sunday of Ordinary Time, the season of the Church calendar where we practice ordering our lives around the teachings of Jesus. On this Fourth of July “pont” weekend, we will reflect together on how Jesus brings liberation even to us unbelievers through “scandalous grace.” As we reflect on the lectionary texts from the Gospel according to Mark and Paul’s Second Letter to the Corinthians, we pray you’ll be spiritually renewed and socially reoriented for the week ahead.

Note from Worship Committee:

During our year dedicated to exploring the search for peace, notice the over 600 cranes that grace the wall to the east of the Chancel and at the back of the Sanctuary. The crane is a Japanese symbol of peace, here in origami form. These cranes were first strung above the center aisle of our Sanctuary five years ago in conjunction with the Confirmation Class of that year although they were folded on commission.

Children are warmly welcome to stay in Worship! For children who stay during Worship, the Pray-Ground can be found in the area in front of the back pew. The Pray-Ground is a designated place in the Sanctuary where young children can experience Worship through age-appropriate worship materials and tools that will help keep them engaged in what is happening. We will continue to rotate books and coloring materials on an ongoing basis. Although it can seem counter-intuitive to adults, children are often able to process what they hear more effectively when they have something to do with their hands.

Any child worshipping in the Pray-Ground should bring their grown-up with them to the Pray-Ground. Including young children in Worship can sometimes feel a little daunting, especially on days when they’re feeling a little extra fidgety, but we don’t need to be discouraged from keeping children in the Sanctuary. There are many important things that children learn while in Worship, even when we’re not sure if they’re paying attention. Young children learn by observing the adults around them. Children acquire the “language” of worship by listening to and observing the words the adults around them say, much like how they learn their native tongue. Quite simply, children learn to worship by regularly being in Worship. So families with little ones should feel free to worship together in the Pray-Ground!

FPCNC also offers babysitting during our Sunday Service provided by Saturnina Greeves and Lizz Reyes from Wee Care Nanny Agency. Our Nursery is located just off our Common Room vestibule down the long hall from the Sanctuary and is available between the hours of 8:45–11:30am. Parental and guardian sign-in is required and we do ask that you pick up your child promptly after the Service.

Cents-ability. We're now leaving the Cents-ability jar in the hallway on the way to the Common Room. If you have any spare change, please drop it into the jar either on the way to Coffee Hour or whenever you're in Church. You can also take home a small cents-ability bank to collect change. All change collected will be donated to the New Canaan Food Pantry. Thank you for your awareness and generous response to hunger.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

This Sunday, we hear organ music from the French school composed by Jean-François Dandrieu, also spelled D'Andrieu (c. 1682-1738). He was a French Baroque composer, harpsichordist and organist born in Paris into a family of artists and musicians. A gifted and precocious child, he gave his first public performances when he was 5 years old, playing the harpsichord for King Louis XIV of France, and his court. He was a student of Jean-Baptiste Moreau. In 1700, aged 18, he started playing the organ at the Saint-Merri church in Paris (a post previously occupied by Nicolas Lebègue) and became its Titular Organist in 1705. At some point in 1706 he was a member of the panel of judges who examined Jean-Philippe Rameau's skills to appoint him Organist of the Sainte-Madeleine en la Cité church (incidentally, a post Rameau declined). In 1721 he was appointed one of the four Organists of the Chapelle royale of France. In 1733, he succeeded his uncle, the Organist and Priest Pierre Dandrieu (1664–1733) to become the Organist of the (now destroyed) church of St Barthélémy in the Île de la Cité, a post he combined with duties at Saint-Merri (also known as Saint-Médéric). He died in Paris in 1738 and was succeeded at the organ of St Barthélémy by his sister, Jeanne-Françoise.

We welcome Jan Lucie, who will sing music composed by Alice Stuart Parker Pyle (1925-2023), known professionally as Alice Parker, an American composer, arranger, conductor and teacher. She grew up in Boston and Winchester, Massachusetts. After studying music theory with Mary Mason at the New England Conservatory in Boston, Parker attended Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts, graduating in 1947 with a double major in organ and composition. She then spent a summer at Tanglewood, studying with the conductor Robert Shaw, with whom she went on to have a long and prolific association, and Julius Herford, before beginning a graduate program in choral conducting at the Juilliard School in New York City.

"Ordinary Time" holds significant importance in the Presbyterian Church as it represents a period of growth, reflection, and discipleship within the liturgical calendar. While not marked by major feasts or celebrations like Advent or Easter, this time allows congregants to delve deeper into the ordinary rhythms of life and faith, emphasizing the everyday moments where God's presence is found. It serves as a reminder that the Christian journey is not solely defined by dramatic events or high holy days but is profoundly shaped by the consistent practice of worship, service, and community throughout the year. In this season, Presbyterian believers are encouraged to nurture their spiritual lives, cultivate relationships, and live out their faith in practical ways, fostering a deeper connection to God and one another amidst the ebb and flow of ordinary existence.

During this time, you will see our green paraments that were new last year. The design on the paraments were inspired by our stain glass windows and mid-century modern atmosphere. We hope that as you worship in our Sanctuary or online that you will find spiritual significance and differing interpretations of these designs over the coming months.
