Grace and peace to you, and welcome!

As you prepare for Worship, please sign the red welcome pad found at the center of each aisle so that we will know you worshipped with us. Then pass it to your neighbor. The last person to sign the pad should pass it back to the center of the aisle. We suggest you prayerfully allow the silent, sacred space of where you are, and the quiet stirrings of the Holy Spirit to prepare your heart and mind for Worship.

PLEASE STAND IN BODY AND/OR SPIRIT.*

Call to Confession

Cindy Graziano

Leader: In these times of testing, let us pause to examine our own hearts, looking for how we have failed to live up to that which God has commanded.

Confession of Sin (unison)

Cindy Graziano

Merciful God, you know all about our troubles. Your Son was tested in the wilderness, tempted by the powers and principalities of the age. We confess how easily and often we give in to them. Yet, you continue to forgive, reminding us there is nothing we can do to lose your love. Holy God, turn us from the evil powers in high places, that we may return to you and the path to which you have called us. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us...

(silence for further individual reflection and repentance...)

Leader: In Jesus' name we pray.

All: Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Cindy Graziano

Leader: Friends, this statement is completely reliable and should be universally accepted: Christ came to rescue sinners. Hear and believe the good news:

All: In Jesus Christ, are forgiven! In Jesus Christ, we are made righteous! Amen.

Passing of the Peace

Cindy Graziano

Leader: Through Christ God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, by making peace through the blood of the Cross. May the peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Please share Christ's peace with one another.

THE WORD

Prayer for illumination (unison)

Cindy Graziano

Still-speaking God, guide us by your Word and Spirit that we might hear, and by hearing, grow in faith and love. Amen.

First Lesson – Genesis 2:15-17

Cindy Graziano

¹⁵The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. ¹⁶And the LORD God commanded the man, 'You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; ¹⁷but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.'

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Anthem:

Lord, for thy tender mercies sake

John Hilton

Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake lay not our sins to our charge;
But forgive that is past, and give us grace to amend our sinful lives;
to decline from sin, and incline to virtue,
that we may walk in an upright heart before thee this day and evermore.

FPCNC Choir

Second Lesson – Matthew 4:1-11

The Rev. Mary Marple Thies

¹Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. ³The tempter came and said to him,

'If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.' ⁴But he answered, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."' ⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, ⁶saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, "He will command his angels concerning you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."' ⁷Jesus said to him, 'Again it is written, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' ⁸Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour; ⁹and he said to him, 'All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.' ¹⁰Jesus said to him, 'Away with you, Satan! for it is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."' ¹¹Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

All: Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Call for the Offering

The Rev. Mary Marple Thies

Leader: God is generous and calls us to offer our time, talents and resources back to God, the giver. God has modeled this generosity by giving us all that we are and all that we have. Love and gratitude lead us to give abundantly.

The Bird's Song (from The Pilgrim's Progress)

Ralph Vaughan Williams

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Take these, our gifts, tithes and offerings, O God. Use them for your glory and kingdom's expansion. May our time, talent and treasure go toward freeing the captives, feeding the hungry, comforting the lonely, and healing the sick. As Christ's body, use us too, in giving new life to the broken places of our world. Amen.

TODAY IN WORSHIP

Welcome to worship on this First Sunday of Lent, the “Holy Spring” of the church and a five week season of reflection and repentance to help us prepare for Holy Week and to celebrate more fully Easter new life! This year, we will be using the lectionary texts but also a kind of spiritual “compass” that Scott has found helpful in his life’s faith pilgrimage. Each week, in addition to the biblical texts, we will also consider the questions: “Does it give life, or take life away?” Does it expand your world, or shrink it?” “Does it lead you more deeply into mystery and paradox, or black and white reality?” “Does it set you free to give yourself away to something bigger than yourself, or enslave you to the fear of ‘not enough’?” and finally, “Does it bring joy, or despair?” The purpose of Lent, after all, is to lead us into new life! We are glad you are joining us for worship, and pray you will experience the grace of God’s welcome here, and be spiritually renewed and socially reoriented for the week ahead.

Sunday School! Join us as we explore Bible stories and all our questions about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, and the world around us. We will explore these themes through discussion, crafts, music, and other visual media. Children begin worship in the Sanctuary with their families then following the Blessing for Young Disciples, we move to our Sunday School classes upstairs in the Bliss House and then return to the Sanctuary towards the end of worship.

If your child is participating in Sunday School, please fill out this very short form so that we have up-to-date family contact numbers, and you can provide us with any information about your child that will help us minister to them: <https://fpcnc.breezechms.com/form/2024SundaySchoolStudents>

Adults or older teens who want to come be part of the fun of Sunday School, we need you! Join us and bring your own sense of wonder and joy as we learn together what it means to be part of God’s big family. Let us know of your interest by filling out this form: <https://fpcnc.breezechms.com/form/Teachers2024-25>, or reach out to Leah Saulsberry at leahs@fpcnc.org.

TODAY IN WORSHIP (Cont'd)

Children are warmly welcome to stay in Worship! For children who stay during worship, the Pray-Ground can be found in the area in front of the back pew bench. The Pray-Ground is a designated place in the Sanctuary where young children can experience worship through age-appropriate worship materials and tools that will help keep them engaged in what is happening. We will continue to rotate books and coloring materials on an ongoing basis. Although it can seem counter-intuitive to adults, children are often able to process what they hear more effectively when they have something to do with their hands.

Any child worshipping in the Pray-Ground should bring their grown-up with them to the Pray-Ground. Including young children in worship can sometimes feel a little daunting, especially on days when they're feeling a little extra fidgety, but we don't need to be discouraged from keeping children in the Sanctuary. There are many important things that children learn while in worship, even when we're not sure if they're paying attention. Young children learn by observing the adults around them. Children acquire the "language" of worship by listening to and observing the words the adults around them say, much like how they learn their native tongue. Quite simply, children learn to worship by regularly being in Worship. So families with little ones should feel free to worship together in the Pray-Ground!

FPCNC also offers childcare during our Sunday Service provided by Saturnina Greaves and Lizz Reyes from Wee Care Nanny Agency. Our Nursery is located just off our Common Room vestibule down the long hall from the Sanctuary and is available between the hours of 8:45–11:30am. Parental and guardian sign-in is required and we do ask that you pick up your child promptly after the Service.

Have a prayer request? Prayer Cards are located in the back of the church adjacent to the Sanctuary entrance. Before worship, please give the completed Prayer Card to either Scott, Mary or one of the Ushers. These requests will be included in our Prayers of the People for that Sunday. You will have the option to exclude your prayer from the communal prayer if you prefer. All prayers will be held and prayed over in confidence. Any questions or concerns, please contact Mary (marythies75@gmail.com).

Cents-Ability – The Cents-ability jar is in the hallway on the way to the Common Room. Please drop your spare change into the jar either on the way to Coffee Hour or whenever you're at church. You can also take home a small cents-ability bank to collect change. All change collected will be donated to the New Canaan Food Pantry. Thank you for your continued support to the New Canaan Food Pantry.

ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC

This morning, our organ prelude is composed by French composer, organist and pedagogue Maurice Duruflé (1902-1986). In 1912, he became a Chorister at the Rouen Cathedral Choir School, where he studied piano and organ with Jules Haelling. At age 17, upon moving to Paris, he took private organ lessons with Charles Tournemire (whom he assisted at Ste-Clotilde until 1927), Guilmant and Vierne. In 1920 Duruflé entered the Conservatoire de Paris, where he took courses in organ with Gigout, harmony with Jean Gallon, fugue with Caussade, and composition with Ducas. He also graduated with first prize in piano accompaniment. In 1927, Louis Vierne nominated Maurice Duruflé as his Assistant at Notre-Dame. Duruflé became Titular Organist of St. Étienne-du-Mont in Paris in 1929, a position he held for the rest of his life. In 1943, he became professor of harmony at the Conservatoire de Paris, where he worked until 1970.

Our choir's offertory anthem is composed by John Hilton (ca. 1599-1657), an English early Baroque composer. His father was probably the church musician and composer John Hilton the elder, who died in Cambridge in 1609. Hilton junior became Organist at St. Margaret's Church, Westminster in 1628. In 1635, Hilton was Lutenist to Charles I. He is best known for his books Ayres or Fa-Las for Three Voices and Catch That Catch Can.

Our soprano soloist, Lisa Flanagan, will sing offertory music composed by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), an English composer. His works include operas, ballets, chamber music, secular and religious vocal pieces and orchestral compositions including nine symphonies, written over sixty years. Strongly influenced by Tudor music and English folk-song, his output marked a decisive break in British music from its German-dominated style of the 19th century. Throughout his life he sought to be of service to his fellow citizens, and believed in making music as available as possible to everybody. He wrote many works for amateur and student performance. He was musically a late developer, not finding his true voice until his late thirties; his studies in 1907–1908 with the French composer Maurice Ravel helped him clarify the textures of his music and free it from Teutonic influences. Vaughan Williams is among the best-known British symphonists, noted for his very wide range of moods, from stormy and impassioned to tranquil, from mysterious to exuberant.

Our organ Postlude is music composed by Joseph Callaerts (1830-1901), a Belgian organist, carillonneur, composer and music teacher. He was an important member of the Belgian school of organ playing. Joseph Callaerts (sometimes referred to as Jozef) was born in 1830 in Antwerp, and spent nearly all of his life in that city. He started learning music when he was a boy, singing in Antwerp's Choir of the Cathedral of Our Lady. As a young man, he studied the organ with Jacques-Nicolas Lemmens at the Brussels Royal Conservatoire. Starting in 1850, Callaerts served as the Organist at the Jesuit College in Antwerp. In 1855 he became the Organist at Antwerp Cathedral and in 1863 he became Carillonneur of the city of Antwerp. From 1867 on, he taught organ and harmony at the Royal Conservatoire of Antwerp.

Did you know...

On Wednesday, February 11, our electrician Kieran O'Connell and I were joined by a technician from Verdin Clocks and Bells and our Tower Bell operating system was upgraded. The last time work was done was in 1997, and components of the striking mechanism of the bell were reaching life expectancy and needed attention. (The Verdin Company did the initial work on our bell and subsequent upgrade.) In order to upgrade, new wiring and cable was required. This process began some months ago with the purchase of the wire and cable needed to replace what existed. Kieran worked over many weeks, crawling around the building to install the new material. The bell's new operating system now resides inside the Women's Changing Room/Music Library. The completed work will ensure many, many years of continued operation of our bell. We will now hear, along with our peal every Sunday morning at the conclusion of Worship, a more somber tolling feature for funerals and memorial services. As well, our bell will now chime every day of the week at 12:00 Noon and 6:00pm. It is our hope that anyone present during these times will pause for a moment to enjoy the wonderful sound that the bell has to offer. Terence J. Flanagan, Director of Music and Fine Arts

STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN 2026

2026 Stewardship Update:

The 2026 Stewardship Campaign has concluded. We are thrilled to report that we raised $926,000! Exceeding our campaign goal of $920,000. Much of the success of the final weeks of the campaign is due to the Pledge Match Challenge which was offered by two generous donors. The Challenge raised over $140,000 during the final five weeks of the Campaign.

The Stewardship team wants to thank everyone in the Congregation who has contributed or pledged since the start of the Stewardship Campaign in November. The overall participation has been great. Everyone should be proud of our combined support for First Presbyterian!

Even though the Campaign is officially over, if you have not yet pledged for 2026, you can still do so. There are pledge cards at the back of the Sanctuary, and you can also pledge online at <https://fpcnc.org/pledges>. Or contact Wendy in the Church office.

Thank you and Blessings from the Stewardship Team

A Century of Black History Commemorations – From Negro History Week to Black History Month

2026 marks 100 years of national Black history commemorations, honoring the vision of Dr. Carter G. Woodson and the founders of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (ASNLH), now ASALH. In 1926, Dr. Carter G. Woodson launched Negro History Week, creating a movement that transformed how America and the world recognize the contributions of people of African descent. What began as a week-long observance has grown into Black History Month, a cornerstone of American and global culture. For its 100th theme, ASALH invites the world to reflect on the power of remembrance and how Black history commemorations have transformed identity, inspired progress, and preserved truth against erasure. From the Haitian Revolution and Juneteenth to today's cultural landmarks, these observances remind us that to understand the modern world, one must understand Black history. As the nation also approaches the 250th Anniversary of U.S. Independence, ASALH calls for a continued commitment to telling an inclusive and accurate history, especially amid efforts to erase it. A legacy that began in 1926 continues today. Learn more about the theme: <https://asalh.org/black-history-themes/>

LENT AT FPC

The Lenten season is here! We marked the beginning of Lent with an Ash Wednesday Worship Service this past Wednesday, February 18, as we enter this season of preparation for Easter. This year, our theme is Finding the Way... Each Sunday, in addition to the lectionary texts, we will be using a kind of spiritual “compass” to help you discover the way of Jesus along your life’s faith pilgrimage. On each of the five weeks leading up to Holy Week, we will reflect on one of the five questions:

- 1) “Does it give life, or take life away?”
- 2) “Does it expand your world, or shrink it?”
- 3) “Does it lead you more deeply into mystery and paradox, or black and white reality?”
- 4) “Does it set you free to give yourself away to something bigger than yourself, or enslave you to the fear of ‘not enough’?” and finally,
- 5) “Does it bring joy, or despair?”

The purpose of Lent, after all, is to lead us into new life! And hopefully along with the biblical lessons, these questions will help us find our way to the new life God intends for us and all people.

You are also welcome to pick up Lenten devotionals, One Great Hour of Sharing coin fish banks for your children to help save, and brown bags/grocery items for food pantry donations. We have also set up the Labyrinth in the Sanctuary for you to experience prayer using the Labyrinth.

LENT AT FPC (Cont'd)

Lenten devotional booklets are here – for individuals or families! Please pick up either devotional below at the table by the main Sanctuary entrance and share one with a friend.

40-DAY "LOVE BUILDS UP" FAMILY CHALLENGE

40-Day "Love Builds Up" Family Challenge

For each of the six weeks of Lent, spend some time at the beginning of the week (Sunday night, maybe?) reading the Bible passage together. Talk as a family about that week's topic, using the conversation prompts included in this devotional if that helps. Commit to taking on an action or practice from that week, then just watch as the Realm of God fills, strengthens, and beautifies your house and the world!

Wendell Berry and the Sabbath Poetry of Lent

The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing. (Isaiah 14:7)

The word "Lent" comes from an old English word for "lengthen," and refers to the lengthening days of spring. Anticipating Easter, the church prepares with forty days of fasting and reflection, the better to celebrate the great feast when it comes. The word "sabbath" comes from an old Hebrew word for "to stop," and refers to pausing secondary activities (like work) to clear space for the primary ones (like relationships, delight, study, freedom, beauty, restoration – and resurrection). The poet Wendell Berry calls "the idea of sabbath...as rich and demanding an idea as any I know" – and over the decades, Berry has devoted many Sundays to writing "sabbath poems" that explore the depths of this rich, demanding idea. In this Lenten devotional, biblical texts walk hand-in-hand with Berry's sabbath vision of the natural world, and together they suggest simple, accessible practices you can try yourself, with your family or friends, or with your congregation.

Action and Contemplation for Lent... The Sanctuary is open for members Mon-Fri from 9:00am-5:00pm who want to spend time for prayer and meditation, using the Labyrinth or if you simply want to enjoy some quiet time sitting in the Sanctuary, you are welcome. This is a great opportunity to bring your food donations for the New Canaan Food Pantry, to pray for ourselves and our larger community. We believe prayer and service go together. Instructions for the Labyrinth are posted or you can reach out to Scott or the church office for guidelines. The Labyrinth is designed to lead one into private meditation via following the intricate path that takes us to the center.

It's not a maze, but a purposeful passage that may be entered into with gentle song, prayer, or quiet meditation. We ask that you remove your street shoes, so please wear socks or bring your slippers from home.

LENT AT FPC (Cont'd)

During the season of Lent (February 18 – March 29), our congregation collects a special offering for One Great Hour of Sharing. Around the world, millions of people lack access to sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. The work done in support of the causes supported by One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) — disaster, hunger, poverty, climate change, and immigration/migration and refugees — serves individuals and communities in need. This work provides people with safety, sustenance, and hope. This Offering helps to improve the lives of people in these challenging situations.

To donate online, use the QR code located in the bulletin insert or in the below photo. You can also donate using the envelope included in your bulletin starting March 8 or they are available at the Usher's table throughout the season of Lent.

If you'd like to know more about Membership, please contact Membership Elder Barb Achenbaum at 203-273-6908 or barbachenbaum@gmail.com.

Calling all Lads and Lassies to join the 2026 Scottish Heritage Committee to help organize this year's Scottish Sunday, planned for Sunday, May 3, 2026.

Scottish Sunday is one of the highlights of our church year - and we need your help to make it happen! This much-anticipated annual Service brings our Presbyterian cultural heritage and celebration into our church. It's a day filled with memorable worship, fabulous music, joyful dance, and excellent food and libations!

Joining the committee is a wonderful way to contribute to the life of our church in a hands-on, enjoyable way. It's a chance to help sustain a tradition that brings distinction to the church, strengthens fellowship, and creates an experience people talk about long after the last toast and bagpipe tune.

If you enjoy working with others, value tradition, and like being part of something truly special, we would love to have you on this year's committee (and you don't need to be Scottish to join the fun!) We encourage and respectfully ask all our former committee members to re-engage with us this year, as well as new joiners with new energy and new ideas. All are welcome! We promise a good time will be had by all!

Please let Patty von Jena / Nancy LaBadie, or Wendy know in the office if you would like to join the committee.

Recent SCAM emails

You might have received an email from Scott explaining about a recent email scam or directly from scammers asking for you to respond with a conversation or help getting gift cards, etc. Please note that the FPC staff will ONLY use our church email (i.e. scott@fpcnc.org, terry@fpcnc.org, jriehl@fpcnc.org, leahs@fpcnc.org or wendy@fpcnc.org) to communicate with you. We will NEVER solicit money or gift cards from you. Correspondence from any other email is a SCAM and should be deleted.

The online scammers are getting very crafty and sophisticated in their trickery. Please take time to always check the sender email (@fpcnc.org) and, no matter what the content of the email, if it is not from the church address (@fpcnc.org), bad actors are using our identities to trick you and commit fraud.

If you receive something that you think is from one of the FPC Staffers and looks suspicious, please do not hesitate to call the office to clarify the email content/email address. Thank you from the FPC Staff

INCLEMENT WEATHER 2026 SEASON

It's that time of year when we need to be cautious about driving in bad weather. The Church Office will follow the NC Public Schools regarding any delays or closures. We will try to update our website in a timely manner to notify everyone of office closures or you can view the NCPS website at: <https://www.ncps-k12.org/page/school-closings-delays-and-early-dismissals> If bad weather occurs on a Sunday, please watch for an email from the church with details or check out our website www.fpcnc.org. REMINDER: Please refer to the Emergency Preparedness Guidelines document and if you haven't already, please sign up with the town for alert messages here https://www.newcanaa.info/online_services/emergency_call_out_system/index.php.

The town of New Canaan Human Services maintains a vulnerable resident outreach registry. In the event of a town-wide emergency, Human Services staff will contact those residents wishing to receive a wellness call. If you are a NC resident 65+ and/or homebound/disabled and would like to have your name added to the Registry, go to https://www.newcanaa.info/departments/human_services/index.php. Follow the directions there or call Marcella Rand, the Adult and Senior Services Coordinator, 203-594-3083.

Pastoral Care Team:

Do you know of someone who might appreciate a phone call or visit, someone who is lonely or mourning? Our congregation has a team of people who are ready to reach out to church members who are facing a life crisis. They may be in declining health, shut-ins, living in a care facility, grieving, or struggling with a significant change in their circumstances. Our Pastoral Care Team, made up of Ferial Aldag, Peg Bull, Debera Prosek, Ellen Sisson, Barbara Wentzel and The Rev. Mary Thies, is ready to provide pastoral care to church members who are dealing with such a situation. If you know of someone who could benefit from this ministry or if you have questions about the work of the team, please call the church office 203-966-0002 (ext 1).
